Never wake me up
I need to sleep for as long as I can keep
The memories about your love
Ever since we part I know your face by heart

I'm building bricks of pain
Gathering remains for the past life I was you
I'm crying out the jewels
White as all the pearls, I will give them to you

Touch me with your love, give me one last night
Come uncover my severance
You know all my fears, come and freeze my lips
I want you and no one else

Hold me in your arms, hear me with your heart
For this once, just hear me out
I have nothing left, not a prayer I saved
It's lonely here without you

Touch me with your love, give me one last night
Come uncover my severance
You know all my fears, come and freeze my lips
I want you and no one else

Hear me with your heart (Hold me in your arms)
For this once, just hear me out
I have nothing left, not a prayer I saved
It's lonely here without you
