Comin' up the lane callin'

Bm7 c#m7 f#m

Workin' while the rain's fallin'

Ragman, your song of the street

Keeps haunting my memory

F#m f#m/e dmaj7

Music in the air

Bm7 c#m7 f#m

I hear it ev'rywhere

Dmaj7 c# a/e d#m7-5

Rags, bones and old city songs

Dmaj7 e7sus4 a

Hear them, how they talk to me

Trolley car rings out the morning

Whistle blows at noon

A cat fight breaks open the night

While watch dogs bay at the moon

A preacher on an orange crate

With a salvation army band

And clicking along the cobbled stones

That's the sound of the ice-cream man

Comin' up the lane callin'
Workin' while the rain's fallin'
Ragman, your song of the street
Keeps haunting my memory
Music in the air
I hear it ev'rywhere
Rags, bones and old city songs
Hear them, how they talk to me

The organ grinder and his monkey
Still walkin' the same old beat
The shoe-shine boy slappin' leather
He puts the rhythm in your feet
Strollin' by the churchyard
List'nin' to the sunday choir
With voices rising to the heavens
Like sirens screaming to a fire

Comin' up to the lane callin'
Workin' while the rain's fallin'
Ragman, your song of the street
Keeps haunting my memory
Music in the air
I hear it ev'rywhere
Rags, bones and old city songs
Play them one more time for me
