

Band, The "Sleeping"

Visit "Sleeping" on MotoLyrics.com

Intro: f/c c, eb/bb bb, bb/f f

F c/e dm7 f7/c

For the life we chose in the evening we rose,

Bbmaj9 a7 a7/c# dm7 f6/c f6

Just long enough to be lovers again.

Bb f/a gm7 gm7/c

And for nothing more, the world was too sore

F eb/f f

To live in.

Sad old ships,

A morning eclipse,

I spent my whole life guessing,

Then i turned from the sun

And saw everyone

Searching.

F bb

The hoot owl and his song, will bring you along

F/c c eb/bb bb bb/f f

Where else on earth would you wanna go?

F bb

We can leave all this hate, before it's too late

F/c c eb/bb bb bb/f f

Why would we wanna come back at all?

Cobwebs on my pillow,

I'm found in the willow,

I'd spend my whole life sleeping.

To be called by noon

Is to be called too soon

Today.

The storm is passed,

There is peace at last,
I'll spend my whole life sleeping.
Now there's not a sound,
No one to be found
Anywhere.

The shepherd and his sheep
Will wind you to sleep,
Where else on earth would you wanna go ?
To a land of wonder
When you go under,
Why would we want to come back at all ?

Coda: f eb/f f7

Visit Band, The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.