[Verse 1]

You asked for my attention so
I gave you all of it and
Now you wanna throw it away
How did I get in this position?
Now we're standing at a distance and I'm trying to comprehend it but
How can I if you don't understand
What you put me through

[Hook]

You're letting go of everything
I thought I was your everything
Baby I was speaking right but you're making it difficult
Don't know how I could deal with this hurt
How could you do this to me? erase all our history?
You put me through this misery
Now only thing that I can see, I can see

[Chorus: x2]

It's going down the drain, it's going down the drain
I can feel the pain, it's messing with my brain
I can hear the drip, drip, drip, drip, drop
Don't you hear the drip, drip, drip, drip, drop

[Verse 2]

I remember when we used to kiss and
And cuddle up and cuddle but how come we can't do that no more
'Cause it's long gone & it ain't coming back, no
Did it ever occur to you that I'd be trippin' missing you
After seven months out the door
& I still live in the past sitting here thinking like

You're letting go of everything
I thought I was your everything
Baby I was speaking right but you're making it difficult
Don't know how I could deal with this hurt
How could you do this to me? erase all our history?
You put me through this misery
Now only thing that I can see, I can see

[x2]

It's going down the drain, it's going down the drain
I can feel the pain, it's messing with my brain
I can hear the drip, drip, drip, drip, drop
Don't you hear the drip, drip, drip, drip, drop

[Bridge: x2]

I know you hear the rain drops
'Cause they're fallin', equivalent to my tears of [?]
Wash me away, after I put all in Wash me away, wash me away

You're letting go of everything
I thought I was your everything
Baby I was speaking right but you're making it difficult
Don't know how I could deal with this hurt
How could you do this to me? erase all our history?
You put me through this misery
Now only thing that I can see, I can see

[x2]

It's going down the drain, it's going down the drain
I can feel the pain, it's messing with my brain
I can hear the drip, drip, drip, drip, drop
Don't you hear the drip, drip, drip, drip, drop
