What happened to your glassy soul? You and me... we ´re all alone

What happened to this sorry world? Soon we all be gone...

Listen to me while I sleep, stalk right through my dreams

Talk to me while I´m not here, tell me of your hidden fears

Dirty white flags, I give in, velvet blue sheeps on the screen

Plastic girls and narrow men, at sunrise we´ll be sad again

What happened to your fragile heart? Us and them...
we

freeze

What happened to this soft warm place? I hope... you'll rest in peace

You've told me of tomorrow, I'm in the mood for suicide

You make plans for everything, don't you know, we've failed?
