You know they say in every man's life
There comes a time when he gets struck by the arrow of cupid
By the love of God or the beauty of a woman
And sometimes this love, brings thunder to your life
And it brings the storm, sing about it

There is more to love than this
Love is more than just a kiss
Will we take it to that step
Will we do more than just connect

And will you bring the thunder in my life
And the fire in my eyes
'Cause then there will be days of pleasure
Where everything far will be so near

I have never felt thunder
(Thunder)
And lightning like this
(Lightning)
I have never been struck by
(Struck by)
A wonder like this
(A wonder)

There are days where I can't stop talking about you
There are days I can't stop saying your name
And I'm looking for ways never to part from you
Have everything change and you still stay the same

I've never seen and there's never been Anything with the beauty of you

Yo, yo, yo, aiyo, shorty, I've never met someone so beautiful
From your hair follicle to your finger nail cuticle
Struck by the arrow of cupid, this love is deep rooted
Like someone took my heart sampled it and looped it

To a song that's endless, passion brings the tempest
I'll slay a thousand dragons to save my little princess

A walking gift from God, you are my shining star
The diamonds and gold that most men be mining for

Days that we share are like treasures
The treasure like fire is to mankind
My hands will try to carry you to heaven
But since I've seen you, you've brought heaven to my mind

I have never felt thunder
(Thunder)
And lightning like this
(Lightning)
I have never been struck by
(Struck by)
A wonder like this
(A wonder)

I have never felt thunder
(Thunder)
And lightning like this
(Lightning)
I have never been struck by
(Struck by)
A wonder like this
(A wonder)

I have never felt thunder
(Thunder)
And lightning like this
(Lightning)
I have never been struck by
(Struck by)
A wonder like this
(A wonder)

I have never felt thunder
(Thunder)
And lightning like this
(Lightning)
I have never been struck by
(Struck by)
A wonder like this
(A wonder)
