As the snow is gently falling, hang the mistletoe you said
A Christmas to remember lay ahead Don't forget to mail the packages and the cards there in the hall
Remember last year's tree was just too small

It's time again to pull out all the ornaments, the train
The kitchen towels with Santa, the lights and candy
cane
Inside each box of treasure from the Christmas that's gone by
And each one will remind us how they fly

Please remember (please remember)
Please remember (please remember)
All the Christmases gone by
Please remember (please remember)
Please remember (please remember)
All those Christmases gone by

In the kitchen you make cookies, taste the sugar star
you said
The Christmas to remember lay ahead
Should we put out all the reindeer or just Rudolph standing tall
It was you who had to have him at the mall

It's time again to pull out all the ornaments, the train
The kitchen towels with Santa, the lights and candy
cane
Inside each box of treasure from the Christmas that's gone by
And each one will remind us how they fly

Please remember (please remember)
Please remember (please remember)
All the Christmases gone by
Please remember (please remember)
Please remember (please remember)
All those Christmases gone by

Oh please remember (please remember)
Please remember (please remember)
All the Christmases gone by
Please remember (please remember)
Please remember (please remember)
All the Christmases gone by
