Heaven may be an answer
If you're lookin' for eden in the sky
On your waters i see a strange reflection
Rumor has it i'll see you when i die

Everyone i meet is from california
There's dancin' in the streets in california

In california you watch the shadow dancer
Floating gently, gently on the sea
In california you're such a strange romancer
Come and see me when the world has set you free

Everyone i meet is from california
There's dancin' in the streets in california

Everyone i meet is from california
There's dancin' in the streets in california
