The child breaks each moment of sadness for our sakes

Leaving, trying his best to believe then

Hoping this dream will come true

Sadness is only a face for you

I will try like the devil to bear your names

Anything for you

In only a moment your life can change

Still lake, rocking the boat, it's not too late

Leaving, trying your best to believe then

Hoping this dream will come true

Sadness is only a face for you

I will try like the devil to bear your names

Anything for you

In only a moment your life can change

You fell through the window and down on the floor

You found a direction, you hope will say more

With your life, it's taken every one in view

The people are pretty, the flowers are too

You don't get to heaven if they don't say you do

'Cause it's life and it's taken every one of you

And it's true

I'd like to take you but I don't think there's room for two

I'd like to take, I'd like to take you

I'd like to take, I'd like to take you

I'd like to take, I'd like to take you

I'd like to take, I'd like to take you
