Here I am, there you are
Who would believe we could come this far
We're beneath this magic moon

The ocean plays it's own sweet tune
The summer breeze it whispers low
It tells us something we both know

Tonight is for dreamers
Tonight someone up there has seen us
How we feel for each other

There could be no other
So he sent these words from above
Tonight is for falling in love

Tonight there's magic in the air
Look around, it's everywhere
Hear the sand birds bill and coo

Actin' like they know it too
Hear the wind pass through the trees
Like it's tellin' everyone it sees

Tonight is for dreamers
Tonight someone up there has seen us
How we feel for each other

There could be no other
So he sent these words from above
Tonight is for falling in love

There can't have ever been such a night
I don't want it to end
With you in my arms girl I feel so high
Hell, I don't ever want to descend

Tonight is for dreamers
Tonight someone up there has seen us
How we feel for each other

There could be no other

So he sent these words from above
(I love you)

Tonight is for dreamers
Tonight someone up there has seen us
And I can't hold you enough

Tonight is for dreamers
Tonight someone up there has seen us
He sent these words from above
Tonight is for falling in love
