Hey, Mr. Negative stop spoiling my day
Stop stealing energy, get out of my way
Hey, Mr. Negative go find a new friend
You've hurt me long enough
Our friendship must end

We met on a sunny day, I saw a distant cloud
Since that day life ran away, I'm quiet you are loud
That made me your bitter deputy
Now I'm stuck in your deep misery

Hey, Mr. Negative...

I see possibilities when you don't see at all
I run a marathon, you can barely crawl
The smile you give me tells me it's alright
A shining lighthouse blacker than the night

Hey, Mr. Negative...
