There's a little girl who lives with her dad
Got everything but still so sad
Keeps on asking when is mom coming home?
Daddy says soon

Short stories
Made up glories
We'll save the day
I stand up high
Never gonna be the one to stray

Here was a man of honour, lived like he told
By the time he blossomed he was too old
Time for checkup, will I make it worldwide?
And the doctor lied

Short stories...

Well, the sky is always blue
The sun will always shine
If you try to make it so
