I'm cruisin, I'm losin money on gas
I pass a car with a star in it, I stare
For a minute, but that's the limit Otherwise gas won't be the only thing I'm losin' money too...ooh wee! It's Tuesday, two days after the weekend Imagine if the weekend was a day for Weak minded men - anyway I re-take my train of thought, I bought a fat sack and I'm happy cause I got nappy Soldiers in my crew, ya through, if You don't learn so I learnt, that I'm burnt I ran into my homie, yeah wassup?
At least I thought he was, but then I caught the buzz that he was talkin behind my back From his girl, ain't that Earl? For Those who can't feel me, Earl means wack
In fact, I had that problem a few times
But I'll just splurge it in a new rhyme, then forget it Maybe I'll split it in half, or laugh like this...
Ha ha ha... can u feel me?

I faked the funk, and conversated without a doubt He was a chump, but with clout, I ended my route at the liquor store and I tried to buy a Guinness Stout, but I remembered it was nasty But fools drink it cause it's a hip-hop classy
You can miss me with that trendy drink Cause they, all make your breath stink, plus death is linked to all alcohol that Arabians won't let you buy they keep tellin me my identification is a lie Why would I, put my face on plastic and in the space where it says birthdate put "see owner" fool, I'm a teenage organ donor
So I pick up my I.D. I ain't trippin - why?
Cause I'm high, already, on life Once again - I'm riding
I'm about to hit the eastside of Oakland I got my seat belt on so when the heat's felt From 5.0, I'll turn up the song and start Singing, "I wish police was a lease that was up" Can u feel me?

Well it's gettin dark, but it's daylight savings time Clocks go back, but I stay focused and ahead cause I wanna be fat, can u feel me?
If you rap I like to fully flex, I like to box
I like breakin bullies necks
I like collecting checks and collecting respect But I'm not there yet and until then I'll just sell dank - sacks 20's, 10's, I'm drivin the weights to be prepared in case I meet my fate and I'm always thinking, "Where will I go when I die?
Will I be underground like I am now or in the sky?" My man plan B is smilin cause he can feel me, wassup Jess
