Sometimes you get this feeling in your head where you just wanna kill

[Verse 1]

Don't act brave you'll get bombed on contact
We on that takin' away lives of those that talk back
I'm in a mind state that may appear intense
It's not that uncommon that I lose my common sense
When I intoxicate my brain with that tonic
The world around me changes and my views become demonic
I'm on that pure mixture of anger and rage
The beast you heard about has now escaped from his cage
There's no need for you to analyze or understand
Some people don't even get it, they stuck in wonderland
You're all typical don't act like you're invincible
I get into these rituals and make you look invisible
My objective is to kill this competition
No matter what it takes smash heads like car collisions
Oh yes I confess my soul has been possessed
The evil demon leaves you with a hollow chest

[Hook]

Welcome to the darkside
Where the killas be on the run
Be poppin' off with them guns
And tryin' to be number one
Welcome to the darkside
In the city we never sleep
Be ready to feel that heat
It's dangerous in these streets

Welcome to the darkside
Where the killas be on the run
Be poppin' off with them guns
And tryin' to be number one
Welcome to the darkside

I mean don't you ever get the urge to just kill

[Verse 2]

Don't even talk get your mouth cracked fast with a brick
I'm in the dark with a mask straight chocking your b*tch
Behind the razor fence where the pigs eat the kids
Chillin' with thugs I light fires just for the kicks
I'm insane that's right my brain's f*cked
Catch a knife to the gut when I open you up Laughing at me? Naw b*tch I'm taking your life
Come and get the last ticket to the darkest of nights

Some people wonder why I do what I do
It's not for you to understand

[Hook]

Welcome to the darkside
Where the killas be on the run
Be poppin' off with them guns
And tryin' to be number one
Welcome to the darkside
In the city we never sleep
Be ready to feel that heat
It's dangerous in these streets

Welcome to the darkside
Where the killas be on the run
Be poppin' off with them guns
And tryin' to be number one

[Verse 3]

I think I lost my grip on what they call reality
Your god could ever save me all that sh*t is fantasy
I've been corrupted since my dad's d*ck erupted
Its Vyzualz aka that dude that you can't f*ck with
The devil is inside of me, you can't stop this rivalry
I know you talk sh*t but secretly admire me
These voices in my head encourage my condition
These words hit like silver bullets damaging your visions
I'm on the war path, get stomped on like door mats
Rain is on its way and you don't know the forecast
It's only natural I enjoy attacking you Walk around all chest out, it makes me wanna laugh at you
You're just a simpleton, walk around with simple men
Soft like an old man fighting against impotence
You have no clue look at what I go through
I don't even know you but still I have to show you

And, and there's just some time in life where you're just gonna have to murder someone... like brutally murder someone

I'm just an average guy like you
I mean... you see the beauty in life while I see the beauty in death

[Hook]

Welcome to the darkside
Where the killas be on the run
Be poppin' off with them guns
And tryin' to be number one
Welcome to the darkside
In the city we never sleep
Be ready to feel that heat
It's dangerous in these streets
[x2]

I just wanna see blood [x4]
