Brought on to a world of ice
A plateau of frozen lakes
A nazi place of doom
In their sights

Training camp on Scottish heights
To Commando Saboteurs
The mission of their lives
Lies ahead

Called in to serve
And they knew what to do
They were the heroes of the cold

Warrior soul
This aint the book of history
They played the leading role
To win the second war

Allied time was running short
They would race against the bomb
And hours turned to days
Time passed on

As the nature test their strength
They would fight through night and day
To live amongst the wild
Stay alive

Called in to serve
And they knew what to do
They were the heroes of the cold

Warrior soul
this aint the book of history
They played the leading role
To win the second war
Heroes of Telemark
Carry Viking blood in veins
Warriors of the northern land
They live forevermore x2

Called in to serve
And they knew what to do
They were the heroes of the cold

Warrior soul

Warrior soul
This aint the book of history
They played the leading role
To win the second war

Warrior soul
This aint the book of history
They played the leading role
To win the second war
