The place is welcoming
It may not look like
Seen by a stormy night
It's always like this
With such ancient houses
It's as old as the hills

Such a charming place to stay in
Two way mirrors, hillside manor

You're waken at night by
Sounds in the attic
Outside you've seen a light
But now daylight is back
Have no more fear
When everything is clear

Such a charming place to stay in
Two way mirrors, hillside manor

The place is welcoming
It may not look like
Seen by a stormy night
It's always like this
With such ancient houses
It's as old as the hills

Such a charming place to stay in
Two way mirrors, hillside manor
