i can't sleep, with all the city awake everything in L.A is the same everyday and every night, i can't stay strong, gotta give myself a break, oh oh oh oh chorus:

so i'm goin home, right now i can't take this gotta be alone, i need the people with me who matter most, my family, i'm goin home honestly this stress is makin me cry, makin me sigh, and i can't do it, right now, oh oh oh repeat chorus

just give me a small explanation, for why this is takin so much out of me, yeah oh oh oh oh hey, i wish that i could settle down, tonight repeat chorus 3x

two places matter to me, but which one will i be at, yeah oh oh oh oh oh 2x (yeah)
