I can dream a dream
The dreamer is inside of me
Its just that way
I can only reach what I believe
Cause I cant reach beyond my faith
No, Im not limited by what has always been Its time to break the status quo and take a leap
And jump out of my skin
Break these chains, open this cage
Let the lion run free
Destiny awaits beyond these gates
Let the lion run free
Let the lion run free
Oh, to face the jungle of impossibilities and have no doubt
To trust what I cant see and know the lion thats in me
Will lead me out
Ill take the challenge, go into the great unknown
Its time to wake this giant thats in me, let me inhibitions go
Repeat chorus
