Like a deer that had been panting for the water
I was thirsting for so long
I was so dry
So I set out on my journey
Not sure just what I'd find
But I found an everlasting river of life

Ooh, it's just life fallin' rain
I will never thirst again

(chorus)

Living water, bread of life
Come and quench this thirst within me
Fill this hunger deep inside
For so long I have been empty
Nothing else will satisfy
You alone are what I need Lord
Living water, bread of life

I had searched this whole world over for the answer
Wanting just to fill this void inside
All the things that were material
They could not satisfy
For my hungering was for the bread of life

Ooh, it came like manna from above
I can never get enough

(chorus)
