"Over The Horizon"

Well Ive always been a bit of a dreamer
Holdin on to the hard to believe
Still I struggle just to fathom or imagine
What Jesus has waiting for me
Oh it's not that Im afraid of the future
For my faith has allowed me to see
That beyond the temporary it is
There He has got all the answers I need
So Im tryin my best to remember
The vision he's given to me

CHORUS

Just over the horizon
Past the mountains of uncertainty
The place where dreams become realities
Somewhere on distant islands
Far beyond what human eyes can see
There is a better world awaiting me
Just over the horizon
Well nobody wants to leave the familiar
When you got all the comforts of home
Steppin out is not as scary as the worry
Of steppin into the unknown
And it's not that Im afraid of the movin
For the danger will come if you wait
And the door will never open by just hoping
Youve gotta start walking in faith
So keep tryin your best to hold on
And remember the promise He gave
