i see this hurting world
of humanity,
your beloved ones
i see the construction crews,
principalities,
we've been overrun
i see the walls going up
like towers
higing out bleeding hearts from Your healing love
and Your power
i'm on my knees in prayer
volunteering,
i can't wait fo You to
Chorus:
Send Your denolition down
from the sky
these walls have to fall,
i'll be Your Josha
swing me back and let me fly I'll ride Your wecking ball
I'll ride Your wecking ball
to see this evil scheme
of the underworld
in dire straits
smashingto smitereens
all the barriers
that hide your face
to watch Your children
om surprise, fall to their knees
open thier eyes
when you
(repeat chorus)
