[Music:Rudolfsson, Brolycke, Andersson Lyrics:Karlen]

WAR! War of the ages, warwind, ironwind, deathwind.
Blood that flows so fucking sweet, decapitation of human minds.
Blood of the ages, bloodwind, plaguwind,
faminewind.
For Satan's glory we will fight.
Like a battlecry for victory, we'll scream forth.
The manifestation for eternal war.
The manifestation for the blood of man.
The manifestation for supremacy.
The manifestation for massive death.
WAR! Hate of the ages, battlwind, furywind, painwind.
Killing winds of nuclear war. Toxic air breeds you all.
Death of the ages, blackwind, hatewind, killingwind.
Marching proud over bloodred ground.
A black millennium, death has come.
We'll scream forth. The manifestation for eternal war.
The manifestation for the blood of man.
The manifestation for supremacy.
The manifestation for massive death.
Warheads of mass destruction.
Nuclear death, deformation.
Tanks of steel, death on wheels.
Ships of war to destroy you all.
The manifestation for eternal war.
The manifestation for the blood of man.
The manifestation for supremacy.
The manifestation for massive death.
Winds of steel, for death you'll kneel.
State of war, to decline you all.
Warfare of degeneration.
Atomic bombs, laceration.
