You say your misunderstood I say you give it real good now you work your way back you're crawling You say you've always been there I say I don't understand you say your back for good your crawling But your time now is gone you try to hang on try to stay on your feet but now your crawling, crawling to me crawling, crawling crawling, crawling
back to me crawling, crawling Is this what you want take it right back to the start when you fall on your face your crawling Try it all on your own give it all that you know but when you come up short your crawling
But your time now is gone you try to hang on try to stay
on your feet but
How you want all of my time I see what you are like enter into my life crawling
You know no words to say you always like to play when on your hands and knees your crawling
on your feet but
