In the wake of all this
I see it in a different light
Oh can't you feel they're stellar
People trying to reach out
And rip your heart out

Is this how
You wanted it to be
Then why can't you see
It's buried deep

Now everything around me
Is slowly starting to disintergrate
All my nails bitten down

Then you polaroids are
Black nails and memories lost
Oh can't you feel they're staring
You up and down
Rats they always run
Away from the scene

Is this how you wanted it to be
Then you can't see
It belongs to me
