Still looking out the window at someone in love.
Give me a sign - any minute and I'll be lost ...
I go through the seas of our dreams?
Are you coming? Waiting for you in my thoughts.

But come the night. Embrace gentle from yours to my loneliness.
Departs night to you
but to me - waking up the city.

Look again - brick palaces and white doves fly ...
Every thought is a kiss, the last time.
I'll touch you and your thoughts?
