(Intro)

That could be you
That could be me
That could be him
That could be her
That could be us
That could be us
That could be him
That could be me
That could be you
That could be them
That could be us
That could be us

(Verse)

It can be me and it can be you
It could be false, it could be true
It could be love, it could be hate
It could be chance, it could be fate
They could be weak or they could be strong
It could be words but it could be songs
It could be joy or it could be grief
It could be right in your face or buried deep underneath
It could be so devilish I could be spiritual
It could be metaphors, it could be literal
It could be... too hard to even comprehend
It could be ready to finish or about to begin
It could put you in a trance and retrack your life
It could be male or female black and white
It can be gay or straight even now we're late
It could be stiff as a board or a formless lake
It could be a bitch nigga or your closest friend
That could be one and the same, ye niggas pretend
It could be life or death any race that thought of us
How could I ever judge shit, it could be all of us.

(Hook)

Our life, low life it all can change tomorrow
Never blackened, why wish I could see it all
You never know... you never know... you never know,

you never know
You never know... you never know... you never know,
you never know

(Verse)

Dance with a demon, he don't change he change you
Now you naked in plain view
Reaching for a leaf to cover your transgression
Who are you to gage another man's depression
Who are you to gage another man's expression
Veer from fear, steer from the plan lesson
I outcast, cast it out Van stressin
Polite man left you while you stand guessin
Then I found a gun by my mothers bed
She said it came from my brother in law
I got another cousin did time up in the feds
We need to find some brothers in law
I recovered it all, I kept my nose to the pavement
And he said I got 2 white girls to take the pavements
He just got out it's good to be free
How can I judge him, shit... it could be me.

(Hook)

Our life, low life it all can change tomorrow
Never blackened, why wish I could see it all
You never know... you never know... you never know,
you never know
You never know... you never know... you never know,
you never know
