Just a glance, ya one little look that's all it was but that's all that it took, and I knew that I'd never be the same, saw
It all go down before I knew your name, ya this... this could be it...

All of my plans, all of my wishes, all of my smiles, all of my kisses, it's all you they belong to... all of my hours, all of My minutes, my world ain't spinnin without you in it, this heart's got plenty of room and it all belongs to you...

I ain't got a plan, I'm just rollin with the flow, ya you know I'm just makin it up as we go, come on honey tell me what do You say? I've been saving it up just to give it away, that's right... so what you doin the rest of my life?

All of my plans, all of my wishes, all of my smiles, all of my kisses, it's all you they belong to... all of my hours,
heart's got plenty of room and it all belongs to you... so come on Take my hand cuz I wanna be your man gonna give you all I can

my kisses, it's all you they belong to... all of my hours,
all of
heart's got plenty of room and it all belongs to you... it all
Belongs to you
