And so, you build
A life, on trust
Though it starts with love and loss
And when your heart begins to rust
Oh, It's just metal and dust

We argue, we don't fight
We argue, we don't fight

And all, foundation
That we've made
Built to last, they disintegrate
And when your house begins to rust
Oh, It's just metal and dust

We argue, we don't fight
Stay awake till the middle of the night
Stay awake till the middle of the night
We argue, we don't fight
Stay awake till the middle of the night
Stay awake till the middle of the night
(We don't argue)

We argue, we don't fight
Stay awake till the middle of the night
Stay awake till the middle of the night
(We don't argue)
We argue, we don't fight
Stay awake till the middle of the night
Stay awake till the middle of the night

We don't argue
We don't argue
Heeeah, We don't argue
