And I feel that I'm a victim of jilted childhood.
Look what I have become.
It just proves your lack of character.
Had I known that you were trying make,
build and mold me into perfect shape.
Well adieu. You think it's going to take.
Build and mold me into perfect shape.
Well I do, you.
And I feel that I'm a victim of jilted childhood.
Look what I have become.
It just proves your lack of character.
Had I known that you were trying make,
build and mold me into perfect shape.
Well I got to make my own mistakes.
Build and mold me into perfect shape.
Well I do, you.
I hold myself responsible for things that I've done and
can't forget.
You shouldn't hold me and nothing was chosen.
Cut off your nose to spite your face.
I hold myself responsible for things that I've done and
can't forget.
You shouldn't hold me and nothing was chosen.
You don't have the nose to spite your face.
