Take my hand
Don't even make a sound
You're a finest one to what I've found
All I need is
Your commitment and your time
It's fallen in to place
Nothing you should have to say
In your potential state
Take my hand and
Follow my embrace
Take my hand and
Never turn away
Settle down
Never change
Potential state
Silence me when you don't turn around
You're a finest one to what I've found
And all I need is
Your commitment and your time
It's fallen into place
Nothing you should have to say
In your potential state
Take my hand and
Follow my embrace
Take my hand and
Never turn away
Settle down
Never change
Potential state
