It's that time again
when there's no reason left to cry I realize from this that I can't prove that you're mine

Maybe it seemed to you that I didn't know that you were there
But trust me when I say
I'm aware

Sunday morning is here again
Last time, don't know where it went
We said we'd always be together
Hold on to this feather
and I will always remember

When I've gone away
I need to know if you're just my friend
I'm going out of my mind
Please give us a chance to meet again

Maybe it seemed to you
that I didn't know that you were there
But trust me when I say
I'm aware

Sunday morning is here again
Last time, don't know where it went
We said we'd always be together
Hold on to this feather
and I will always remember
