"Real Eyes Realize Real Lies"

Visit "Real Eyes Realize Real Lies" on MotoLyrics.com

You wouldn't dare to believe in what you can not feel Concentrate on what is real
Through broken bloodshot eyes that you will never fear
the locked and hidden lies are clear

Concentrate on your mind
'cause that same old misery is hanging behind Focus or be blind
Real eyes realize real lies
You've got to be the one who shoots the bullet in time Before it is too late

That's why you never know what to do when the third guy this week is leaving you for good
That's why you never show
anything but greed when love is knocking at your door

You wouldn't dare to believe
in what you can not feel
Concentrate on what is real
Through broken bloodshot eyes
that you will never fear
the locked and hidden lies are clear

for good
That's why you never show
anything but greed when love is knocking at your door
