Some people hide behind their smiles
Some people drink fantastic bottles of wine
I'm not perfect, you're not even close
But you should tear down your fences, open up I suppose

But if we wait here for each other
We could be waiting here forever
And I feel there's no time to discover
That you should grab your things and never look back,
never look back again

Some people sail the world around
Some people never venture far from their hometown
But only that's no issue, that's no big letdown
But if it woulda make a difference you might as well do it now

But if we wait here for each other
We could be waiting here forever
And I feel there's no time to discover
That you should grab your things and never look back,
never look back again

Are we the same set of reason, same one (?)
The love we give away is the only love we really keep

But if we wait here for each other
We could be waiting here forever
And I feel there's no time to discover
That you should grab your things and never look back,
never look back,
Never look back, never look back again
