From when I wake
In the morning 'till I go and
And I fall asleep each night
I fight to hold on to A love that is inside
Because my past is like a nightmare
That I never can escape
And I can't wait 'till I wake up so I can fall back asleep

And I don't understand what happened between you and me but
You will probably end up with someone half as good as me so
I don't care if you want to look in my eyes and say hello
You were blind to me, now I'm blind to you, no

So now I wait for the moment
When I know that there's no one left to see
All the hurt that's inside me
Oh, and the reason that I need I need to let go of the things I see that have always let me fall
And I cannot find my way home no because I'm already home

And I don't understand what happened between you
and me but
You will probably end up with someone half as good as
me so
I don't care if you want to look in my eyes and say hello
You were blind to me, now I'm blind to you, no

Blind to me, blind to you

And I don't know what you need
But I know you're listening now
And I don't care what you think
Because you didn't think to care about me

And I don't know what you need
But I know you're listening now
And I don't care what you think

Because you didn't think to care about me

And I don't understand what happened between you
and me but

You will probably end up with someone you know that is half as good so

I don't care if you want to look in my eyes and say hello
You were blind to me, now I'm blind to you, no

You were blind to me

Now I'm blind to you
