I just wanna run..

I wanna run
My hands keep holding you
To the place that we never knew
Will be running away

I wanna run
And take you through the night
And the stars will never lie
And the place that we made

I wanna run
With my hands
I can feel how your tender skin
Starts to tremble and turns me in

Wanna feel it over and over over again
All I need stay with me when I'm alone
I can make that your fears are gone
When I love you over and over and over

I wanna run
My hands keep holding to you
To the place that we never knew
Will be running away

I wanna run
And take you through the night
And the stars will never lie
And the place that we made

I wanna run
I wanna run, I wanna run, I wanna run, with you..

My feels coming higher
And senses are turn

And we are on fire
We move the world

Want you to stay?
Want you keep you inside
And this motherfucking pain
Wants to rack my mind

This run to the sky
To the support available
No matter how many maps
We gonna walked to available

Gonna fly to the moon
I don't care for weather
We go all together
We'll try together

I wanna run, I wanna run,
Wanna run, wanna run, wanna run away with you
I wanna run, I wanna run,
Wanna run, wanna run, wanna run away with you

My hands keep holding to you
To the place that we never knew
I'm running with you..
I'm running with you
