Pulse, the pulse is not your approach will overcome
I close my eyes momentarily prolong
And filled with a warm body
Closer was the only step to breathe you

Heart melted, disappeared persons
Opposite eye, thy murderer.
Breath in the body and less fatigue.
And I never, ever go to sleep.

I'm actually weightless, eyes shut.
In your atmosphere dissolve.
Wrap the body, caressing breeze.
but never, never touch

I have five minutes of your heat.
From finger tips to burn to the ground.
Leaving only the flame and ash
You are burning
Along the skin stretches his arm
Imperceptibly quiet her two breakthrough
You open heavy eyelids.
Leaving your opinion
