"A Night To Remember"

Sacrifice myself for my position
Dedicate my time to indecision
Spend my days in idle conversation
Spend my nights in random concentration

Do you know what you're waiting for?
And how long it will take?

Every day the same old situation
Every night the same infatuation
Life is good but life can be frustrating
I'm still here and God knows I'm still waiting

Do you know what you're waiting for?
And how long it will take?

I want a night to remember
This is one, you won't forget
I need a night to remember
This is one, you won't regret

I state my case before the judge and jury
Everybody says, "What's your hurry?"
Life's too short to spend anticipating
I'm still here and God knows I'm still waiting

Do you know what you're waiting for?
And how long it will take?

I want a night to remember
This is one, you won't forget
I need a night to remember
This is one, you won't regret

Just one night, yes
I think it's time for me to go
For a walk, oh yeah

You're a man of many colors
Gotta go, gotta go, gotta go, get, get, get away
You're a man of changing colors
Here I go, here I go, here I go, here I go, go, go again

You're a man of many colors
You're a man of changing colors
Here I go again

I want a night to remember
This is one, you won't forget
I need a night to remember
This is one, you won't regret
Gotta get away

I want a night to remember
This is one, you won't forget
I need a night to remember
This is one, you won't regret

Bye, bye
