I know somewhere I'm there and on the mind
Somebody must have really hurt you bad
You do to others whats been done to you
If you think thats right you must be mad
What ever happened to the innocense
You gotta tell me why

You get this look that I don't recognize God only knows what you've become
What ever happened to the innocense
You gotta tell me why

Chorus
Gotta love it, gotta leave it
You gotta have it but you really don't need it
Won't be happy til you think you know it all
{you} Gotta love it, gotta leave it
You gotta have it but you really don't need it
One day the sky will fall

Night falls your off to finding company
Must really hate to be alone
You used to be so very versitle
So what was it that turned your heart to stone?
What happened to the innocense
You gotta tell me why

Chorus {1x}

Chorus [until fade}
{on the fade}
Won't you think you might be heading for a fall
