You speak, when you are spoken to
And buy what you've been sold
You want, but you can't help yourself
Maybe it's time to go home

You smile, with a convincing grin
And laugh, until you frown
You play the game, you know you can't win
If you want some shelter from the storm

Somewhere you feel safe and warm
You can always go home
I think it's time to go home

You cry, but you can't show your tears
You lie, until you feel weak
You're scared, but you can't hide your fears
If you want some shelter from the rain
Somewhere you can ease the pain

You can always go home
I think it's time to go home

No questions asked
No judgments passed
And now, where have you been?

Just nice to see you
And welcome back
Oh yes, you're finally home

Laugh when you want to laugh
Cry when you want to cry
Smile when you want to smile
Lie if you need to lie

You smile with a convincing grin
And laugh until you frown
You play the game you know you can't win
When you need shelter from the storm

Somewhere you feel safe and warm, oh yeah

You can always go home
It's time to go home, ooh yeah
Yeah, yeah

No questions asked
No judgments passed
Now where have you been?

It's nice to see you
Welcome back
Oh yes, you're finally home, ooh yeah

If you want shelter from the storm
Somewhere we feel safe and warm
Then you know, I know, you know
We can always go home
