We're on the air tonight
We're on the air tonight

Reach up high as you wave good-bye
One the air, on the air tonight
You can fly, you can fly all night
No-one's there, everything's all right

Communicate, extrapolate
Just sign up, if you dare
Accommodate, just don't be late
We're living on the air

Refrain:
I wanna be miles and miles away
If you show it, I can load it,
I can fight it, I can be it
I'll send you a little something
But you might not even see it
I wanna be miles and miles away
I can run it, I can sum it,
I can hide it, I can steal it
When I'm goin' a little fast
Sometimes I crash but I don't fell it

Communicate, extrapolate
Just sign up if you dare
Accommodate, just don't be late
We're living on the air

Is ist just me? Didn't you feel that
Or am I the only one?
Cos' if it's just me, then
I'm on the air on my own

You know and I know
That you might be a no-show
So where to? Only God knows
So just say hello

Refrain

Here we go, turn the lights down low
Gives the screen such an eerie glow
You don't know where you're gonna go
But, it's all right, let the night unfold

Communicate, extrapolate
Just sign up if you dare
Accommodate, just don't be late
We're living on the air

Is it just me? Didn't you feel that
Or am I the only one?
Cos' if it's just me, then
I'm on the air on my own

You know and I know
That you might be a no-show
So where to? Only God knows
So just say hello
