"Waiting In The Wings"

Sometimes it isn't so easy
To have a mind of your own
I can imagine why sometimes
You lose control
Don't treat me like a stranger
I can help you more than you know
I'll just wait until you feel like letting go
You're never alone
I'll be right here waiting
I'll be here, I won't disappear
I'm waiting in the wings
You're never alone If you need something
I'm out of view but I'm watching you
Waiting in the wings
You've got a lot of secrets
Don't keep them all to yourself
You can trust all of your feelings
And I'm the one you can tell
It's not a sign of weakness
You don't have to stand alone
You know you'll never have to
Do it on your own
You're never alone
I'll be right here waiting
I'll be here, I won't disappear
I'm waiting in the wings
Sometimes it isn't so easy
To have a mind of your own
I can imagine why sometimes
You lose control
You're never alone
I'll be right here waiting
I'll be here, I won't disappear
I'm waiting in the wings
