"Ronin Revolution"

There was a time warriors rose,
And slowly turned around.
They sought new opponents -
That was the Ronin Revolution!
"I am a driller, a killer, I'll never get a chiller,
No longer I'll take care that you survive.
Now you are my enemy -
That's the Ronin Revolution!"
No one ever will be safe from my endless power,
I'll never fall, I will survive.
No one can stop me, 'cause I - I am a Ronin,
I'm here to stay, I just will stand.

Now the fighters fought against
Their own and supreme sovereigns,
Then they'll search a new ruler -
Let this game begin anew!
"I'm a winner, the bringer, I'll never get a sinner,
I will take care that you survive.
Now you are my new master!" -
Succession of the Ronin Revolution
