You got me shaking.
Got to let me down easy.
It's too convenient that I'm head over heels for you.
Just stop a moment and think about the first time I saw
you from across the room.
She said, "Girls like boys who got it all figured out."
I'll turn it up a notch, turn it up a notch.

And we can stay up all night solving all your problems.
It's like we never had a chance to take a breath.
And we'll stare for awhile and think out loud.
It's like we never had a chance to meet.
'Cause your my summer tease.
You got me shaking like a first class plane crash.
Do you believe in life after burning alive?
Stop the moment and think about that time I dropped a knee and proposed to you.
You said a runaway bride's the best that I could do,
"So, drop a knee boy".

And we can stay up all night solving all your problems.
It's like we never had a chance to take a breath.
And we'll stare for awhile and think out loud.
It's like we never had a chance to meet.
'Cause your my summer tease
