I'll sit back and watch you closely as your heart attack consumes your body, Its kinda funny how you left me for dead she said your like a drug and the more I use the more it kills me and I wont think about you, gotta think about me

And I wont let it go yeah, yeah. Make my way tomorrows my escape
Can you feel me in your IV baby tonight?

I'll relax and watch you closer and your hairs a mess but this is closure Did it hurt to jump out the window I never missed a secret so I know exactly why you did it and when we save forever we meant till this gets old

And I don't care about you, you never cared about me I'LL GET DRUNK AND BURN YOUR HOUSE DOWN

I wont let it go yeah, yeah. Make my way tomorrows my escape, can you feel me in your IV baby tonight

The way her hair smelled, her reflection in the mirror couldn't save a dove from this hurricane. It's hard to jump ship, without the pearls around your neck, let go just sink!
