And there's a fight under city night skylights
And there's a fight
(Somebody's got to go)
And there's the ones who are very much bigger

They want a fight
(The whole world's got to know)
And as boys we always got picked on
But now's our time and
(Somebody's got to go)

We'll find our feet
We'll find our feet right now
We'll find our feet
(Somebody's got)

Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do, just to stay alive?)
Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do, just to stay alive?)

And there's a fight under city night skylights
And there's a fight
(Somebody's got to go)
One look in the wrong direction

Will set it off
(Somebody's got to go)
Compromise isn't an option
It's in their eyes
(Somebody's got to go)

We'll raise the roof
We'll raise the roof right now
We'll raise the roof
(And somebody's got)

Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do, just to stay alive?)
Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do just to stay alive?)

Stop trying to be, you will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all
Stop trying to be, you will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all

Surround, surround, surround, surround
Surround, surround, surround, surround
Surround, surround, surround, surround

Trying to make things better

And there's a shout from the city night skylight
And there's a shout
(Somebody's got to go)
Use your mind, your mind over muscle

To get you through
(Somebody's got to go)
And as boys, we always got picked on
And as boys
(Somebody's got to go)

We'll find our feet
We'll find our feet right now
We'll find our feet

Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do just to stay alive)
Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do just to stay alive)

Stop trying to be
You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all

Stop trying to be
You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all

Surround, surround, surround, surround
Surround, surround, surround, surround
Surround, surround, surround, surround

Trying to make things better

Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do just to stay alive)
Surround, surround, surround, surround
(What you gotta do just to stay alive)

Stop trying to be

You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all

Stop trying to be
You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all

Surround, surround, surround, surround
Surround, surround, surround, surround
Surround, surround, surround, surround

Trying to make things better

You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all
You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all

You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all
You will rise and fall
It's not the be all and end all
