Perfect! Mistakes!
Burning up your eyes, burning up your eyes
It's one for me, it's one for you
Moving onto something new
Perfect! Mistakes!
Burning up your eyes, burning up your eyes
I'm letting go

Easy come easy go
Coz when it's gone you will know
Decisions made on impulse
Save it for a little lust
I say it's in my eyes no compromise
Heart set on one thing, end up losing everything
I watched it build and fall away
The foundations where I lay
I say it's in my eyes no compromise

We could have, we could have swam to shore
But I decide to drown in my mistakes

This train has gone astray
Off the tracks and run away
I keep one eye on the wreckage
I keep one eye on the future
I say no time to stay, no time for thinking
So count me in and count me out
Say the truth don't mess about
I blame it all on confusion
The minds great illusion
I say no time to stay no time for thinking

I can believe, you can't believe
