Sister Mary forgive all our sins,
All the trouble we've all got in,
He's gone too far.
Can we do this, push and rewind,
Can we leave all this behind,
He's gone too far.

Conscience, conscience, conscience fails.

You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.
You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.

Many things have entered my ears,
Many things I'd rather not hear,
But you've gone too far.
Can you stop this, stop and think twice,
Desperation pays a big price,
But you've gone too far.

Conscience, conscience, conscience fails.

You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.
You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.

Stop right now, and just think twice.
Does your conscience play a part in this, conscience
play a part in this?
Stop right now, and just think twice.
Does your conscience play a part in this, conscience
play a part in this?

Conscience, conscience, conscience fails.
You're going the wrong way...
Conscience, conscience, conscience fails.

You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.
You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.

You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.
You're going the wrong way.
This is your only way,
This is your final war, this is your final war.
