(CHORUS)

Review mirror what do you see
I only see people suffering
Time changes fast how do I last
All I need is all my blessings

There is no question to life or why we live this way
Some people suffering every single day
I wish that we could all live good lives
And no drama or death be in our lives
Some of us are good but why do the rest have sins
I wish that goodness could be born within

So tell me why is all my people dyin?
Tell me why do people stop trying?
Tell me why people wanna kill today
Tell me if there's gonna be a better day

(CHORUS)

So many things I have to be grateful for
But there's some things that praying for
I pray that God's gonna make a way
And that he'll lead us to a brighter day
Cause right now all I see surrounding me
Is wars and painful tragedies

So tell me why they commit suicide
Tell me why people gotta fuss and fight
Tell me why can't we all just get along
Tell me if people would stop doing wrong

(CHORUS)

Sitting here thinking of the times when I could just cry
And remembering my blessings and wishes coming true
Well right now I'm wishing that someday
All the drama and the pain will go away

I wish I may I wish I might be able to sleep another night

I wish I might I wish I may wake up another day

(CHORUS)

Review mirror what do you see
I only see me suffering
Time changes fast how do I last
All I need is sudden memoriesâ€
