"All Alright"

That's what I want is a blood in your eye.
That's all I need is a reason to die.
Put it in your vein. It will ease the pain.
So talk your shit to someone else cause I ain't got the time.
Don't ask me things you don't wanna hear.
Turn your heart to stone in the blink of an eye.
You're all I want. You can take me higher.
Lady of my soul. You can't change my mind.
Suicide Jones ain't got shit on me.
Don't ask me things you don't wanna hear.

We're all alright, whether it's wrong or right.
Baby it's all alright from here.
