I've been down this road before
I'm still I'm still who you're looking for Oh I've been looking for place to hide
I feel I feel your eyes
See right through my life

These young artist are striving They say it's hard surviving They only authorizing That Rap is just disharmonizing Tell them not to worry Music it's just modernizing
I beg to differ, cause if you look upon the horizon
You see a star is rising go by the handle flying He like a man of Iron compared to these dandilions
And what come back? the underground I been run that.
It just suck.im so stuck, to the street like a run flat THou it only it take one track to get you back, on my nutsack Im feeling like where the fuck is the love that I might as well make it rain, sleet, snow, hail, In this dry spell. I might as well come out of my shell, hell Cause hip hop aint been the same since i left it Trying to be Positivve I guess was the wrong method.
Cause You can bring the Dick to the Pussy But ya cant make um F it. and now look what im left with...this

I've been down this road before
I'm still I'm still who you're looking for
Oh I've been looking for place to hide
I feel I feel your eyes
See right through my life

We got a black prez
Still alot of crackheads
My grandmother still cant afford her back meds.
KRS already taught about them black feds They dont wanna see us live should we act dead?

Then they wondering why ns rocking that red

Its the only sensible lifestyle tryn put in his head the more blood thats his block the more blood gunna shed check check what he said He said out here dodging the mortuary is not out of the ordinary My people are so calm that its scary and when we in the war why we aint worried like a young G in the street its how I want to be barried look shorty {...?...} Here go a thinkin cap, now put it on with that mentality your as good as gone lying there with the bystanders looking on I aint trying to clip your cone Im trying to put you on

I've been down this road before
I'm still I'm still who you're looking for
Oh I've been looking for place to hide
I feel I feel your eyes
